BACKGROUND

Magglio Ordóñez was born in Caracas, Venezuela in 1974 and made his Major League debut in 1997 with the Chicago White Sox. Mr. Ordóñez's outstanding career in Major League Baseball has been studded with achievements (six-time All Star, three-time Silver Slugger and 2007 American League Batting Champion).

When Magglio Ordóñez signed with the Detroit Tigers in 2005, he committed an annual contribution to the Detroit Tigers Foundation. It was decided that funding would be used to support scholarship and youth baseball opportunities for Detroit youth. It is the hope of Mr. Ordóñez, his wife, Dagly, and their children that opportunities created by this scholarship will benefit the residents of southwest Detroit.

Established in 2005 as an affiliate of Ilitch Charities, the Detroit Tigers Foundation is the official charity of the Detroit Tigers and serves the greater Detroit community. The Detroit Tigers Foundation reflects the commitment of the Detroit Tigers organization, its owners, management, players and coaches to invest in its community. It is the mission of the Foundation to enhance lives through the game of baseball with a focus on youth, education and recreation.
