2013 YEARBOOK
OUR MISSION IS TO ENHANCE THE QUALITY OF LIFE IN SOUTHEAST MICHIGAN.

We promote and facilitate community philanthropy in the seven counties of Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Monroe, Washtenaw, Livingston and St. Clair, and we also help donors invest in organizations they care about nationwide.

We do this by:

• Making strategic investments in programs and organizations that benefit the region
• Equipping organizations and the public with knowledge and information that will lead to positive change
• Building endowment — community capital — to meet our region’s needs today and tomorrow, and
• Providing expert assistance to donors and their advisers in their charitable planning.

The year 2012 was a good one for the Community Foundation for Southeast Michigan and the region we serve. After a prolonged period of economic challenge, what appears to be a solid recovery gained momentum in southeast Michigan, outpacing national economic indicators in some sectors. This recovery is more than a return to business as usual. People here have had to face the fact that fundamental changes to our economy mean that they must prepare themselves for a different workplace and a new economic reality. For many, this has meant acquiring new skills or more education. For others, creating new businesses was the answer to replacing lost jobs with new opportunities. But through it all, people have shown courage and resilience, working creatively to meet pressing needs in their communities and helping one another through difficult times.

Because the Community Foundation is a reflection of the region we serve, the upturn in the economy has meant growth for the Foundation and an increase in our support of the region. In 2012, the Community Foundation authorized grants totaling nearly $56 million to support a wide range of charitable activities. Thanks to the generosity of many, we gained new assets of nearly $92 million, helping our assets climb to more than $655 million. Strong investment performance also contributed to our growth. A 13.6 percent return on investments placed us in the top quartile of similarly sized endowment and foundation peers, which also benefits the more than 180 nonprofit agencies that are building endowment with us.

Our scope of charitable investment is diverse and wide-ranging. From arts and culture to public health, recreation and economic development, we are involved across the spectrum of needs and opportunities in all seven counties of our service area. Through more than 3,000 grants in 2012, we were able to help nonprofit organizations make positive change in their communities. In the pages that follow, we highlight some of these investments and the difference they are making.

As a permanent source of philanthropic capital for our region, the Community Foundation is in a unique position to respond to immediate needs and also to take a long-term view of the best ways to build our communities. Particularly during periods of economic adversity, we can play a unique role in investing in important civic assets and protecting them for future generations. We’d like to provide a quick progress report here on several of our strategic, long-term initiatives.

East-side Detroit Investments. Between 2006 and 2012, we invested more than $30 million in Detroit’s historic near-east side neighborhoods with the help of the Kellogg and Ford foundations, in spite of the economic downturn in 2008. These investments leveraged more than $85 million additional public, private and philanthropic dollars and helped stabilize this strategically important part of the city. Residents now benefit from new anchor institutions like the University Prep Science and Math High School, the Oakland University School of Nursing’s Riverview Institute, and the Rivertown Neighborhood assisted living facility, as well as biking and walking paths and stronger community organizations. The area is now poised to participate in the economic resurgence of nearby downtown Detroit and the continued development along the riverfront. These accomplishments speak to the power of long-term partnerships and a shared vision.

GreenWays Initiative. Our 12-year commitment to creating safe and healthy places for people to walk and bike outdoors has resulted in the development of more than 100 miles of greenways linking more than 80 municipalities across the region. Recently, ground was broken on a half-mile connection between two trail systems, which will result in thirty miles of continuous greenways along the Huron River between the Detroit River and Belleville. In 2012, we helped the city of Detroit obtain a long-sought-after parcel of land for a northbound extension of the Dequindre Cut and secured partial funding for its construction. This extension will complete a critical portion of the greenway, making it possible to bike, walk or jog from the Detroit riverfront to Eastern Market, through the Midtown cultural district and all the way to Wayne State University. We believe this will be a transformational project for the city of Detroit and those who visit and live here.

New Economy Initiative. Economic development work like that being done by the New Economy Initiative (NEI), a 10-foundation $100 million project to foster more innovation and opportunity in our region, is widely understood to be a long-term effort. Yet preliminary results of this initiative, which made its first grants five years ago, show real promise. By focusing on entrepreneurial development, NEI has been able to document more than 400 company starts, nearly 7,000 jobs created, more than $269 million in leveraged investments that were made directly to entrepreneurs, and $166 million more in matching dollars to grantees. More than 33,000 individuals have received entrepreneurial training and mentoring, including growing numbers of immigrant, minority and low-income women entrepreneurs served by a diverse array of support programs throughout the region.

Digital Initiatives. We are proponents of the use of digital tools by nonprofit organizations to achieve greater community engagement. In this publication we share the outstanding work of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and how a well-conceived digital strategy is extending their reach and increasing their connection to local and global audiences. The Community Foundation’s own digital engagement tool, Mode Shift: Move Together (www.wearemodeshift.org) is now in its second year. It is rapidly becoming a vibrant online hub for people who enjoy our great outdoor spaces in southeast Michigan. It features stories and tools that allow members to engage directly with one another and take action on community issues. As we look to the future, we know digital tools will continue to play an increasingly important role in our lives and communities. We look forward to providing “venture capital” that enables nonprofits to experiment with social media and other emerging digital tools to help their communities become more informed, connected, healthy and enjoyable places to live work and play.

In closing, we would like to take this opportunity to thank the extraordinary Board of Trustees of the Community Foundation for their valuable expertise and guidance. We express special thanks to Barbara E. Allushuski and John Rakolta Jr., who completed their service in 2012. And we are also grateful for the hard work and dedication of the staff and volunteers of the Community Foundation.

Above all, we want to thank you and thousands of others across the region for your generosity and determination to make southeast Michigan a better place for all. You inspire us and support our work in countless ways. Thank you!

Through our grantmaking, the Community Foundation for Southeast Michigan seeks to build a stronger, more competitive region by encouraging regional thinking and cooperation, fostering innovation and creative solutions, and leveraging additional resources for area organizations and communities.

In 2012, we awarded nearly $56 million to a wide range of charitable organizations and activities. On the following pages you will find a small sample of the more than 3,000 grants made by the Community Foundation last year. Many grants responded to the current pressing needs of our community, funding the vital work of many of the region’s charitable organizations.

The Community Foundation also continues to invest in long-term positive regional change through multiyear initiatives that target specific issues, such as the GreenWays Initiative and the New Economy Initiative for Southeast Michigan. We bring together dollars, knowledge and expertise from local and national sources to strategically focus on challenges and opportunities in the region.

One of the goals of the Community Foundation’s GreenWays Initiative is to connect people throughout southeast Michigan to the beautiful waterways in their communities. With our support, the Huron River Watershed Council is leading a planning process to help communities along the Huron River develop additional recreation opportunities for residents and tourists that showcase this scenic waterway. Through effective research, volunteer engagement and partnership with groups like the Michigan League of Conservation Voters and the Great Lakes office of the National Wildlife Federation, the Huron River Watershed Council is helping the 73 townships, cities and villages along the river to increase public awareness and use of the waterway while protecting its water quality and natural features for future generations. Their plan, called RiverUp!, will also identify new opportunities for greenways projects along the Huron River.

At 135 years old, The University Musical Society (UMS) is the nation’s oldest university performing arts presenter. In 2012, Hill Auditorium — UMS’s principal venue and the University of Michigan’s “Big House” for music — marked its 100th year. To celebrate, the Community Foundation helped sponsor a season of UMS performances with a global theme. The series featured musical talent from Mexico, Iraq and northern Africa — and a tribute to the musical influence of Detroit’s own Cass Corridor. Programs ranged from single performances to educational outreach, like classroom visits, master classes and community education events. These programs were part of the year-long celebration of one of the most acoustically perfect venues in the country, a masterpiece of beauty and engineering designed by legendary Detroit architect Albert Kahn.

The founders of the Community Foundation believed it was important to build a strong, vibrant southeast Michigan for both current residents and for generations to come. They knew that pooling the professional and financial resources of the community would foster the innovation and creative solutions needed to improve the quality of life for all people throughout the region. For nearly 30 years, caring and civic-minded individuals, families and organizations have established more than 1,000 funds at the Community Foundation to do just that.

The funds of the Community Foundation reflect the varied wishes of their founders — whether the fund is a permanent endowment or a donor advised fund reflecting a donor’s current interests. Many endowment funds provide lasting support for a charitable cause or specific organization, while others provide the Community Foundation with flexibility to meet the region’s ever-changing needs and seize important opportunities that arise throughout southeast Michigan.

In all cases, these funds help to connect those who care with causes that matter. Our Board, volunteers and staff honor the intent of the donors to the Community Foundation by ensuring that the grants made from each fund follow the purposes intended by the founders of these funds — both now and into the future.

UNRESTRICTED FUNDS

Donors may establish an unrestricted fund as a legacy of their commitment to the community. These flexible funds provide the community capital that allows us to respond to the needs of our time, to test innovative solutions, and to support charitable activities that make our region a great place to live and work.

FOUNDERS UNRESTRICTED ENDOWMENT FUND

The Detroit Economic Club (DEC) provides a platform for the major business, government and social issues of our time. It also supports the education of young people, including opportunities to meet with the thought leaders who appear at DEC’s monthly forums. The Detroit Economic Club Scholarship Fund, established at the Community Foundation in 1993, has granted more than $247,000 in scholarship awards. Alex Chivescu, a Romanian immigrant and naturalized U.S. citizen, is a recent scholarship recipient. Alex’s passion for learning propelled him to the top of his high school class in Rochester Hills in spite of moving through eight foster homes after an auto accident left his mother gravely injured. Now at Harvard University, Alex is thriving academically and socially. He has not forgotten his roots or the hardships of others, however. He has returned to Michigan for holidays with his foster family and spoken to the Governor’s Task Force on Child Abuse and Neglect. Alex volunteers for homeless and foster LGBT youth, is an advocate for foster care, and hopes to someday become a foster parent himself.

Christopher Nern Endowment Fund
Established in 2011, this fund perpetuates Mr. Nern’s commitment to assisting a wide variety of charitable activities throughout southeast Michigan.

FAMILY DEVELOPMENT ENDOWMENT FUND
Initiated with grants from the Edward W. Hazen and the Holley foundations, this permanent fund provides support to religious congregations in the city of Detroit to initiate new programs or expand existing programs for those in need.

GEORGE A. AND VIRGINIA M. FERRIS FOUNDATION FUND
George Ferris originally established this fund in 1987 to provide scholarships for children of employees of Wheeling Pittsburgh Steel Corp. Since his death in 1999, Mr. Ferris’ generosity lives on through this fund, which now supports educational organizations and charitable activities that serve the needs of youth.

DOROTHY LOUISE FISHER FUND
Dorothy Louise Fisher established this fund in 2008 to support charitable activities that encourage and develop avenues into the arts and music. This fund also provides support for persons in need, helping them to become self-sufficient, independent, contributing members of society.
ASSISTING ENTREPRENEURS

The College for Creative Studies has been educating artists for careers in advertising, communications and design for more than 100 years. Today’s students receive a combination of art, culture, technology and business training that positions them for leadership in growing industries like film and video, electronic games and new media. To encourage more of their students to start businesses in Detroit, and to support other creative sector entrepreneurs, the college established the Detroit Creative Corridor Center (DC3). It provides business acceleration training and services tailored to creative sector startups. Their work is an important part of the economic development strategy of the New Economy Initiative at the Community Foundation. The New Economy Initiative invests in projects that foster new business and job creation throughout southeast Michigan. Learn more at www.neweconomyinitiative.org.

SALUTING VETERANS

Military veterans are much more likely than the general population to experience homelessness, physical and mental illness, and unemployment. Recently, Detroit Public Television (DPTV) saw a special opportunity to use the power of media to showcase the contributions of this special group of citizens while sharing information about programs and services available to help them. With support from the Community Foundation, DPTV produced a series of interviews and profiles of Michigan veterans that aired on Veterans’ Day weekend. The program directed viewers to a web portal providing news, information and links to social media of interest to veterans and their families.
Developing a National Donor Base

The Arab American National Museum, which opened in Dearborn in 2005, is the nation’s first and only museum dedicated to documenting, preserving and presenting the history, culture and contributions of Arab Americans. Its library and resource center is home to the single largest collection of materials written by and about Arab Americans. Its affiliation with the Smithsonian Institution enables the museum to take part in artifact and exhibition loan programs unavailable to similar institutions. In a few short years, the museum has become a truly distinctive cultural center with national reach. With support from the Community Foundation, the Arab American National Museum is creating a national network of donors and supporters who are raising awareness and funds for this national cultural treasure.

Community Foundation grants support the East Jefferson Corridor Collaborative to hire off-duty Detroit police officers to patrol the East Jefferson commercial corridor, interacting with residents and using community policing strategies to prevent crime. Data from Wayne State University researchers has assisted them in targeting their efforts, which reduced crime by 11 percent the first year. Additional funding from the Community Foundation helped this coalition of local business leaders and residents to extend police patrols into the residential areas of Lafayette Park and Rivertown, where crime is down by 24 percent. Better safety statistics are helping these desirable neighborhoods attract new residents — particularly young adults drawn to the combination of green spaces and urban amenities.

SCHOLARSHIP AND AWARD FUNDS
Donors who wish to support the future of our region by investing in the education of its young people can do so by establishing a named scholarship fund. The Community Foundation also administers award funds for those donors who are interested in recognizing the achievements of a person or group in a specific field. Helping to plan and fund the creation of new greenways, parks and public spaces has been an important priority of the Community Foundation. But with municipalities throughout our region facing severe fiscal challenges, the ongoing maintenance of these important community assets cannot be left to chance. Increasingly, generous donors are joining with us to establish endowments to fund the preservation and care of regional greenways and parks. As these funds grow and new endowments are created to support public spaces still in the planning stages, we help ensure that these important infrastructure investments will be protected far into the future. The Detroit RiverWalk, the Dequindre Cut and a growing number of regional greenways are the designated beneficiaries of endowment funds at the Community Foundation.
Agriculture is Michigan’s second-largest industry, responsible for nearly a quarter of all the state’s jobs; its economic impact is $73.1 billion. Michigan is home to more than 56,000 farms, as well as a growing number of food entrepreneurs. In Ann Arbor, small farmers, artisanal producers and local food advocates come together for monthly “Food and Farming Innovation Breakfasts” featuring an education program, networking and a meal prepared from locally grown ingredients. Organized by the Food Systems Economic Partnership in Washtenaw County, with support from the Community Foundation, the events help food producers forge new partnerships and find opportunities to grow the local farm economy.

CULTIVATING YOUNG LEADERS

At the Community Foundation, we believe developing the next generation of leadership is critical to the future of southeast Michigan. The nonprofit sector depends on high quality volunteers and leaders, including young people. To help youth-serving nonprofits develop strategies for nurturing youth leaders, the Community Foundation organized and convened four full-day workshops featuring national experts and supported by research and best practices in the field. In addition to great learning and networking opportunities, the programs resulted in a series of video trainings that organizations can access on our website and share with their volunteers and supporters.
The transformation of the Dequindre Cut from an abandoned rail corridor into a safe, landscaped greenway has attracted worldwide attention from urban planners. Each day hundreds of people walk, bike and jog there. After years of hard work, the Community Foundation, the city of Detroit and Eastern Market Corp. were able to acquire the land needed to extend the Dequindre Cut north to Mack Avenue and connect it to Eastern Market. This extension, scheduled for completion in 2014, will make it possible to walk and bike from the Detroit riverfront to Eastern Market, through the Midtown cultural district, and all the way to Wayne State University.

The Community Foundation offers a wide range of support, administrative and financial services to help our partners in the business community advance their philanthropic goals. Many of our partners elect to set up advised funds with the Community Foundation to assist with their charitable grantmaking, employee matching gift program, scholarship program, or volunteer grant program.

CLARK HILL – DETROIT ENRICHMENT FUND
Established in 1988, this fund supports charitable organizations and activities in Detroit.

CLARK HILL ENDOWMENT FUND
This fund, established in 1997, provides a lasting legacy in support of the charitable organizations and activities of the southeast Michigan region.

DTE ENERGY EMPLOYEE DISASTER RELIEF FUND
This fund supports public charities providing relief to those individuals and families who are victims of a natural disaster, an emergency, or an act of terrorism or war. The fund is supported by the caring employees and families of DTE Energy and the DTE Energy Foundation.

DTE ENERGY FOUNDATION EMPLOYEE MATCHING FUND
Established in 2012, this fund supports the Walter J. McCarthy Volunteer Leadership Grant Program, as well as the DTE Energy Foundation Matching Gift Program for Educational and Cultural Organizations.
The William M. and Mary E. Pagel Fund was established at the Community Foundation in 1994 to continue the legacy of two people who cared deeply about the health and well-being of the residents of southeast Michigan. An endowed-advised fund, it is a permanent source of financial support for nonprofits working on the issues and causes that motivated these donors.

In 2012, the Pagel Fund supported the Hamtramck School-Based Health Center, which provides free health care to children enrolled in public schools. The center opened in 2000 to address the needs of the Bosnian and Kosovo war refugees and has a special focus on immigrant children. As one of the major vaccine providers in a municipality that lacks a low-cost health clinic, the School-Based Health Center plays an important role in protecting public health. It also serves as a community hub, holding clinics on bike safety, nutrition, oral health and other topics related to the health and safety of children.

REACHING MORE MUSIC LOVERS

For several years, the Community Foundation has supported the Detroit Symphony Orchestra’s (DSO) efforts to achieve greater financial stability and reach more people with its world-renowned sound. This funding has allowed the DSO to experiment with bold new ways to build audiences. In late 2011, the DSO was the first in the nation to offer live webcasts of its concerts. Last year, its social networks grew by 70 percent, gaining new fans from Michigan to Brazil to Korea. These audience-development efforts are helping the DSO build a global market for its new digital products, including the first-ever direct-to-digital “boxed set” of Beethoven symphonies, recorded during the February 2013 Beethoven Festival.

WESTRAN SCHOLARSHIP ENDOWMENT FUND
Named in honor of Roy A. Westran, retired president of Citizens Insurance Company of America, this fund was established in 1993 to provide scholarships for students planning to pursue careers in the insurance industry.

Livingston County is home to more than 100 lakes and approximately 20,000 acres of parks and recreation areas.
In a state surrounded by water, boasting more than 65,000 inland lakes, swimming should be a fundamental life skill for all residents. Yet nearly 70 percent of African-American children in Michigan have little or no swimming ability, greatly increasing their risk of drowning. With support from the Community Foundation’s Detroit Auto Dealers Association Foundation Charitable Fund, the YMCA of Metropolitan Detroit is teaching low-income African-American children to swim. The Detroit SWIMS program uses an innovative approach that takes participants from fear of the water to accomplished swimmers in a matter of weeks. Four-time Olympic swimming medalist Peter Vanderkaay, from Royal Oak, is a volunteer with the program.

SUPPORTING ORGANIZATIONS

A supporting organization is a separate corporation managed by the Community Foundation. Supporting organizations offer donors significant advantages — favorable tax status, and full participation in grantmaking and investment activities — while avoiding the financial and management burdens private foundations often encounter. Supporting organizations also take advantage of the professional support of Community Foundation staff to assist in the administration of their funds. Donors may establish new supporting organizations or terminate existing private foundations into supporting organizations at the Community Foundation.

THE DMC FOUNDATION

The board of directors of the Health and Wellness Foundation of Greater Detroit established this affiliated foundation in 2012, using charitable assets identified during the sale of the DMC Hospitals. The DMC Foundation is dedicated to promoting the welfare of people in the metropolitan Detroit area through the support of health-related research, education and community activities. The DMC Foundation is lead by a 15-member governing board.

THE GILMOUR-JIRGENS FUND

Allan D. Gilmour, former vice chairman of Ford Motor Co., established this affiliated foundation in 1995 to support charitable organizations and activities of interest to him and to Eric C. Jirgens. Grants from the Gilmour-Jirgens Fund are selected by the fund’s five-member governing board.

ROBERT H. TANNAHILL FOUNDATION

Robert Hudson Tannahill, a philanthropist and avid patron of the arts, created the Robert H. Tannahill Foundation in 1961. The foundation affiliated with the Community Foundation in 2001. At that time, it was valued at approximately $54 million. Today, the foundation continues to support the eight nonprofit organizations selected by the late Mr. Tannahill.
We extend our deepest gratitude to our donors who entrusted gifts to the Community Foundation in 2012. Collectively, these generous contributions provide the resources with which the Foundation and its nonprofit partners create positive change in our region. Among those listed here are donors who made gifts to funds benefiting more than 180 agencies building endowment with the Community Foundation.

Since 1984, thousands of individuals, organizations, families, businesses and other foundations have worked with the Community Foundation to fulfill their charitable interests. We want to thank everyone who entrusted their charitable giving to us 29 years ago, as well as those who are investing with us — in the region and in institutions — today.

WHAT DO YOU CARE ABOUT?

For more than 29 years, the Community Foundation has been helping donors fulfill their philanthropic goals. Here are some of the ways the Community Foundation can help you make the most of your charitable dollars.

WE HELP YOU WITH STRATEGIC PHILANTHROPY AND PERSONALIZED GRANTMAKING >>

What is your vision for the future? How would you like to make a difference? Either through personal, one-on-one conversations, or by working with your professional adviser, we help you create giving solutions that reflect your personal values, motivations and goals. Our staff can even tell you about grant opportunities that meet your charitable objectives, and provide you with information regarding research or educational opportunities in areas of interest to you.

WE WORK WITH GIFTS OF ANY SIZE AND DONORS AT EVERY LEVEL OF GIVING >>

What does it take to become a donor? Getting started is easy, and there is no reason to wait. The Community Foundation can help every donor find the right charitable-giving tools to match their stage of life and their preferred level of giving. As a result, everyone can experience the satisfaction of making a difference in the community — and every gift matters.

WE MULTIPLY THE IMPACT OF YOUR GIFT DOLLARS BY POOLING THEM WITH OTHER GIFTS AND GRANTS >>

How can your donation, no matter how large or small, make an even greater impact on the causes you care about? It’s simple: Because the Community Foundation accepts gifts from hundreds of individuals and organizations each year, we are able to pool gifts from donors who share common interests. In this way, we can increase the dollars available to invest in a particular cause. This is the power of collective, community philanthropy.

WE HELP ANY GIFT HAVE BOTH AN IMMEDIATE AND A LONG-TERM IMPACT >>

How can you support your favorite cause both now and in the future? If you make a gift to endowment, it becomes part of a permanent pool of assets that, each year, generates funds to support charitable causes. Over time, as the endowment grows, it produces more charitable dollars that go back into the community. This means that your gift today keeps on giving forever!

WE HONOR YOUR CHARITABLE INTENT FOREVER >>

How do you know that your gift will continue to support the causes you care about long after you are gone? By partnering with the Community Foundation, you are assured that the charitable dollars you entrust to us will always serve the purpose you intended. The Community Foundation’s Board of Trustees oversees all grantmaking and carefully stewards the charitable assets our donors have contributed over the years.

For more information, please contact a member of the philanthropic services team at 313.961.6675, or visit www.cfsem.org/make-gift.
ADVISORY COMMITTEES

Each year, hundreds of individuals volunteer their time and expertise to help the Community Foundation achieve its mission of enhancing the region’s quality of life.

These dedicated community leaders are involved in many aspects of the Foundation’s work, from awarding scholarships to raising funds to reviewing grant proposals. They represent diverse backgrounds, experiences and professions — physicians, business owners, judges, teachers, financial advisers, religious leaders, high school students, retirees — and share a wealth of knowledge about our community. We are grateful to all of our volunteers, whose dedication and commitment exemplify the philanthropic spirit of southeast Michigan. The Community Foundation is pleased to recognize and thank the individuals who, over the past year, served on the following committees.

The Community Foundation’s endowment investment pool had a total return of 13.6 percent for 2012, ranking the Foundation in the top quartile of its endowment and foundation peers (those with investments ranging from $250 million to $1 billion). Overall market performance was strong and investment managers collectively outperformed their benchmarks, which contributed to the Community Foundation’s strong performance.

The Community Foundation’s endowment pool is managed with a long-term perspective by the Investment Committee. Diversification remains the cornerstone for overall portfolio positioning. Changes to the portfolio during 2012 included the removal of three hedge fund strategies and the addition of an opportunistic manager. The Community Foundation’s Investment Committee and its consultant, NEPC LLC, continue to seek opportunities to diversify the portfolio that can improve the portfolio’s risk/return profile. We thank them for their vigilance, hard work and excellent counsel.

The chart below reflects the target asset allocation of the Foundation’s endowment pool at December 31, 2012. The Investment Committee continues to monitor performance and review asset allocation on an ongoing basis.
