

Ralph C. Wilson Jr.
Legacy Funds
OF THE
Community Foundation

FOR SOUTHEAST MICHIGAN

Grants from the Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. Legacy Fund for Caregiving

2018

- American Cancer Society – $25,000 for Caregiver Resource Guides for cancer patient caregivers in Wayne County
- Barbara Ann Karmanos Cancer Institute - $25,000 for cancer caregiver programming at the Institute’s Weisberg Cancer Treatment Center in Farmington Hills
- Cancer Support Community of Greater Ann Arbor - $23,478 for cancer caregiver psychosocial support programs
- Certified Senior Solutions - $25,000 for a caregiver employer education and resource program
- Chaldean Community Foundation - $25,000 for a caregiver training and education program overseeing adults with developmental disabilities
- Gilda’s Club Metro Detroit - $14,270 for a caregiver support group program
- JVS - $18,975 for family and professional caregiver training for people living with dementia
- Jewish Hospice and Chaplaincy Network - $25,000 for a curriculum to train volunteers on caregiver well-being
- Judson Center Inc. - $25,000 for respite for caregivers of children with disabilities at the Lahser Respite Home in Oakland County
- Leeway Health Education Foundation - $25,000 for a web-based video pilot series for African-American cancer patients and caregivers
- Universal Dementia Care - $25,000 for workshops and self-care sessions for caregivers of persons with dementia in vulnerable communities

2017

- Alzheimer’s Association – Greater Michigan Chapter - $12,500 for arts and culture programming for caregivers of people with dementia and those for whom they provide care
- Barbara Ann Karmanos Cancer Institute - $25,000 for programming for cancer caregivers at the Institute’s Weisberg Cancer Treatment Center in Farmington Hills
- Judson Center Inc. - $25,000 for respite for caregivers of children with disabilities at the Lahser Respite Home in Oakland County
- McLaren Oakland Foundation - $20,500 for programs for people who have been touched by cancer in Oakland County, with an emphasis on the city of Pontiac
- National Kidney Foundation of Michigan - $15,500 for a health-management program in Livingston and Washtenaw Counties, aimed at improving caregiver health
- The Lake House – A Gathering Place for Those Touched by Cancer - $25,000 for the expansion of programs for people who have been touched by cancer
- Universal Dementia Care - $22,000 for workshops and self-care sessions for caregivers of persons with dementia
- Wigs 4 Kids of Michigan, Inc. - $10,000 for services for parents of kids with cancer

2016

- Gilda’s Club Metro Detroit - $16,560 for programs for newly diagnosed cancer patients
- Henry Ford Health System - $12,500 to support a cancer care program for low-income and underserved patients and their families during treatment

- Barbara Ann Karmanos Cancer Center - $20,000 for art therapy programs for those diagnosed with cancer
- The Lake House – A Gathering Place - $15,000 for programs for people touched by cancer