About the Fund

The Community Foundation for Livingston County, an affiliate of the Community Foundation for Southeast Michigan, is a permanent community endowment that was established in 1991 to enhance the quality of life in Livingston County. The Community Foundation for Livingston County continues to grow as a result of the generous contributions of many individuals and businesses in Livingston County. The Foundation is advised by a group of civic leaders who live or work in Livingston County and care deeply about the community.

Grantmaking from the Fund

The Community Foundation for Livingston County will have a revised application cycle for 2021, with applications due by April 15, 2021. Grant applications should address nonprofit organizations' unique needs due to COVID-19 related challenges. Applications can address ongoing plans to recover and restore organizational capacity and programs in innovative ways.

Who May Apply

The Foundation will make grants to 501(c)(3) organizations, government entities, school districts and universities that provide programs that serve Livingston County. We do not make grants to individuals, sectarian religious programs or to cover deficits or other previously incurred obligations.

How to Apply

Potential applicants are encouraged to contact Gregory Yankee, Senior Program Officer, gyankee@cfsem.org, to discuss a proposed project before submitting a proposal

Whether or not you decide to proceed with an application, we welcome the opportunity to learn more from you about the issues and opportunities in Livingston County as you see them.

The Community Foundation for Livingston County has a specific application on the Community Foundation for Southeast Michigan's Fluxx portal. Organizations must register in Fluxx in order to apply. More information can be found here: <https://cfsem.org/fluxx-resources-for-grantees/>
